INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

If you believe the law was inappropriately applied or the analysis used in reaching the decision was inconsistent with the information provided or with precedent decisions, you may file a motion to reconsider. Such a motion must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions. Any motion to reconsider must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider, as required under 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(i).

If you have new or additional information that you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reopen. Such a motion must state the new facts to be proved at the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. Any motion to reopen must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reopen, except that failure to file before this period expires may be excused in the discretion of the Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services (Bureau) where it is demonstrated that the delay was reasonable and beyond the control of the applicant or petitioner. Id.

Any motion must be filed with the office that originally decided your case along with a fee of $110 as required under 8 C.F.R. § 103.7.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and a subsequent appeal was dismissed by the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO). The matter is before the AAO on a second motion to reopen. The motion will be summarily dismissed, and the order dismissing the appeal will be affirmed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Ecuador who attempted to procure admission into the United States on November 17, 1999, by presenting a photo-switched passport and an altered nonimmigrant visa. Therefore, she is inadmissible to the United States under sections 212(a)(6)(C)(i) and 212(a)(7)(A)(i)(I), for attempting to procure admission into the United States by fraud and for being an immigrant without a valid visa or lieu document.

A Notice to Appear was served on her on November 26, 1999. On February 2, 2000, an immigration judge ordered the applicant removed from the United States in absentia. Therefore, she is inadmissible under section 212(a)(9)(A)(ii) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(A)(ii), for having been ordered removed. The applicant seeks permission to reapply for admission into the United States under section 212(a)(9)(A)(iii) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(9)(A)(iii).

The director determined that the unfavorable factors outweighed the favorable ones and denied the application accordingly. The AAO affirmed that decision on appeal and on first motion.

On second motion, the applicant states that she is not giving up and requests that her application be reconsidered for humanitarian reasons.

Pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v), an officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The applicant has failed to identify any erroneous conclusions of law or statement of fact in the prior motion to reopen. Therefore, the motion will be summarily dismissed pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

ORDER: The motion is summarily dismissed.
